IF YOU DON'T VOTE, DON'T CRY

Copyright Margaret Block, all rights reserved

If you don't vote, don't cry
We told you before to vote or die.

When things get really bad and you have to walk
Because you can't buy gas and your walk is no longer all spiffy an spry,
Well, walk on brother, because if you don't vote, don't cry.

When you go to the store and the prices have gone through the ceiling and hit the sky,
And you're walking around cussing and complaining and tell everybody that these prices are too damn high
And you don't know what you're going to buy,
Well, if you don't vote, don't cry.

If you find yourself between a rock and a hard place
And you can't pay your mortgage and have to downsize to a small space
And you feel disgusted and disgraced and can't keep a tear from your eye,
Well, if you don't vote, don't cry.

If you get laid off from your job and things for you were already hard
And you know that they sent your job to another land
And all you can do is throw up your hands and ask God why?
Well, if you don't vote, don't cry.

If you get really ill and can't go to the doctor because you can't pay the bill
Not to mention buying those expensive pills,
And you feel like you're going to die,
Well, if you don't vote, don't cry.

If you go off to school and you complied with all the rules
But you can't get a grant or a student loan and have to pack your bags and go back home
And you're all angry and upset and tell your mama that the world is just passing you by,
Well, if you don't vote, don't cry.

If you lose your food stamps and section eight
And you call your worker to get it straight
And she tells you that John McCain cut your benefits and didn't say why
And you let out a heavy sigh,

Well, if you don't vote, don't cry.
We already told you to vote or die.

CIVIL RIGHTS IN AMERICA

DR. CARTER G. WOODSON

THE FATHER OF AFRICAN-AMERICAN HISTORY

Imagine a world where people like you have no written history, or that which has been written is incomplete or distorted. Before Dr. Carter Godwin Woodson (1875-1950) began his work, there was very little information, and much of that was stereotypical misinformation about the lives and history of Americans of African descent.

Dr. Woodson was the son of former slaves but earned his Ph.D. degree from Harvard University in 1912-only the second black American to do so (after W.E. Dubois). This achievement was even more extraordinary since he did not begin his formal education until he was 20 years old. He had been denied access to public education in Canton, Virginia, where he was born, and did not start school until he moved to Huntington, West Virginia. He received his high school diploma two years later, a bachelor's degree from Berea College in 1897, and went on to earn both a A.B. and M.A degrees from University of Chicago before attending Harvard University.

In 1915, Dr. Woodson founded The Association for the Study of Negro Life and History (The Association) and The Associated Publishers to assure an outlet for the publication of works of African-American history and the scholarly work of black scholars. The Association is now known as The Association for the Study of African-American Life and History (ASALH). In 1926, The Association, under Dr. Woodson's leadership, established Negro History Week to coincide with the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln and Frederick Douglass. Today, the commemoration has expanded into Black History Month.

In 1976, fifty years after the first celebration, The Association used its influence to institutionalize the commemoration from a week to a month and from Negro history to black history. Since the mid-1970s, every American president, both Democrat, and Republican, has issued proclamations endorsing The Association's annual theme. This year's theme is African American and the Vote.

"If a race has no history, if it has no worthwhile tradition, it becomes a negligible factor in the thought of the world and it stands in danger of being exterminated." "In fact, the confidence of the people is worth more than money."

-Dr. Carter G. Woodson

POEMS TO INSPIRE AND CHANGE YOUR MINDSET

Be True To You

Anonymus

As you set out on life's road
unsure of the path you'll go,
the most important thing you can do is to always be true to "you"

Always remember who you are in moments of struggle or fear.
Never forget or give up on the hopes and dreams you hold dear

There will be setbacks and rejection
and moments of failure too,
but you must overcome any frustration
to achieve the potential of you.

Don't forget to smile, or laugh,
or to live in the present;
no matter where life takes you
make every memory pleasant.

As you travel along your journey,
know that you're never alone
and I'll always be here for you should you need the comfort of home.

The Power of One

by Ashish Ram

One song can spark a moment,
One whisper can wake the dream.
One tree can start a forest,
One bird can herald spring.

One smile begins a friendship,
One moment can make one fall in luv.
One star can guide a ship at sea,
One word can frame the goal

One vote can change a nation,
One sunbeam lights a room
One candle wipes out darkness,
One laugh will conquer gloom.

One step must start each journey.
One word must start each prayer.
One hope will raise our spirits,
One touch can show you care.

One voice can speak with wisdom,
One heart can know what's true,
One life can make a difference,
You see, it's up to you!

"NEVER BE LIMITED BY OTHER PEOPLE'S LIMITED IMAGINATIONS."

-DR. MAE JEMISON, FIRST AFRICAN-AMERICAN WOMAN ASTRONAUGHT

"EDUCATION IS THE PASSPORT TO THE FUTURE, FOR TOMORROW BELONGS TO THOSE WHO PREPARE FOR IT TODAY."

-MALCOLM X, AMERICAN MUSLIM MINISTER AND HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVIST

"EDUCATION IS THE MOST POWERFUL WEAPON WHICH YOU CAN USE TO CHANGE THE WORLD."

-NELSON MANDELA, FIRST BLACK PRESIDENT OF SOUTH AFRICA

"IF THEY DON'T GIVE YOU A SEAT AT THE TABLE, BRING A FOLDING CHAIR."

-SHIRLEY CHISHOLM, THE FIRST AFRICAN-AMERICAN CONGRESSWOMAN

"BELIEVE IN YOURSELF, LEARN, AND NEVER STOP WANTING TO BUILD A BETTER WORLD."
